

Awo Taan Healing Lodge Society

"Nurturing Families living in Peace"

RECRUITING VOLUNTEERS FOR THEIR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Awo Taan Healing lodge Society was established in 1992 as a not for profit organization committed to providing services and programs to women and children from all cultures who have suffered from family violence. We provide a broad continuum of support services guided by Aboriginal teachings, including prevention, intervention, and healing.

The Board of Directors provides strategic direction to the organization and, ensures the organization's financial viability is maintained. This volunteer position, while being a challenging role at times, requires an openness to learn, trust, and a strong interest and commitment to the organization. Interested applicants must possess exemplary character, integrity and be willing to undergo security checks as required.

We are currently recruiting individuals who possess the following skills, expertise and leadership in;

- Property management and special housing projects
- Fund Development
